PASTOR'S POST

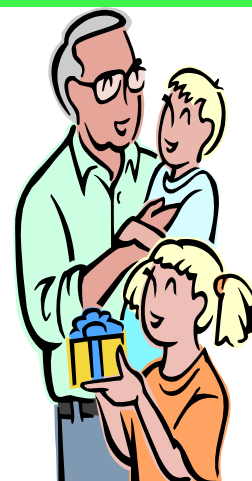

I sat in my office the other day pondering on something that to be honest was quite comical and it occurred to me that in today's society there are many who truly don't know God. We spend wasted time trying to convince everyone we meet we know God, but when the first set back happens, we "blow a gasket" and run away from God and the church. Spend some time searching your heart. Allow God to show you the truth of your soul and then humbly seek His wonderful forgiveness. You never know what changes may occur in you life. May God bless you this month and may His grace and mercy abide in you now and forever.

God Bless,
Bro Steve
