NETHA'S NOTES

First I would like to thank you all for your prayers and well wishes during my recent illness . Praise God!!! I do not have to have surgery. I encourage those that did not go on the Branson Trip to go with us on the next trip. The fourteen of us had so much fun and bonded as Christian brothers and sisters. I could feel the Holy Spirit moving in me as we attended the conference and had fellowship with one another.

PASTOR'S POST

The greatest blessing a pastor can receive is for someone to comment on the the joy of the Lord the church has. I have received such comment and I can not agree more. The Joy of the Lord is ever so present here at Crown Heights. It was a great joy to be a part of the senior trip to Branson. The fellowship with each of you that went, brought a ever-so-present feeling of joy and comfort from the Lord. I cannot give God enough praise and glory for allowing me, a simple country hillbilly, the opportunity to pastor a loving church as this. I thank each of you for your love and support and I thank the Lord in Heaven for the family He has placed Tammy and I in here at Crown Heights. The excitement builds in my heart to be a part of what God plans for Crown Heights.

God Bless You All

Brother Steve
